AND HERE'S THE RULES

You must be a member of Xanadu Las Vegas to participate in this event.

You will be going on stage in front of hundreds of people and therefore consent to have your picture taken by anyone for any purpose. You do NOT have to pose in the photographers area after your performance.

Costume concept must be based on the genres of Science Fiction, Fantasy or Horror and must not show more flesh than commonly seen at any public beach.

Your costume must allow you to step up stairs to the runway (and back down).

You will have a maximum of two minutes on stage.

Visual presentation only, there will be no microphone.

After your stage appearance, there will be an optional photo area for the paparazzi to snap your pic in front of a backdrop. Here you may hand out networking information.
